The Rev. Professor David Wilkinson

David Wilkinson is President of St John's College, Durham University. He is also Professor in the Department of Theology and Religion. He is married to Alison and has two grown up children, Adam and Hannah.

His background is research in theoretical astrophysics, where he gained a PhD in the study of star formation, the chemical evolution of galaxies and terrestrial mass extinctions. He is a Fellow of the Royal Astronomical Society. After this research he trained for the Methodist ministry, serving in a variety of appointments. His current work at Durham University involves the relationship of the Christian faith to contemporary culture, from science to pop-culture. He also holds a PhD in Systematic Theology where he explored the future of the physical universe.

His recent books include Christian Eschatology and the Physical Universe (T&T Clark) Science, Religion and SETI (OUP), and When I pray what does God do? (Monarch).

He is a Canon at St Albans Cathedral and Ecumenical Fellow at Liverpool Cathedral. He is a frequent contributor to Thought for the Day on BBC Radio 4.
