

THE MARGIE KVERN SCHOLARSHIP
A Partnership between
MNO SYNOD and the WINNIPEG FOUNDATION

The Winnipeg Foundation and the MNO Synod are excited to work collaboratively in the provision of a scholarship to an individual of a MNO Synod congregation or synodically-recognized ministry (SRM). The scholarship is presented annually to a recipient(s) who will have contributed to the musical life of the congregation or SRM and wishes to pursue further education, either formally or through conferences, that would enhance the worship life of their faith community. The award amount is approximately $1000, and varies according to need expressed in application.

Applications shall meet the following criteria:

- address a musical need of an MNO Synod Congregation or Synodically Recognized Ministry music ministry, i.e. conferences, education, programming, musical equipment or instrumentation, etc.
- contribute to the worship life of a Congregation or Synodically Recognized Ministry (SRM) of the MNO Synod

Candidates shall complete a formal application (attached) and submit it before the March 31 deadline each year. Scholarships will be awarded in May after careful adjudication by the Margie Kvern Scholarship Committee and approval by the MNO Synod Council.
