

1. National Catholic Reporter Articles on Eco-justice

The poor People's Campaign turns to health care and the environment

<https://www.ncronline.org/news/environment/poor-peoples-campaign-turns-its-attention-health-care-environment>

Remember the scene in The Graduate when Dustin Hoffman was given one word of advice? "Plastics." Maybe it was not such good advice! <https://www.ncronline.org/news/environment/ncr-today/advice-graduate-was-wrong>

The Pope challenges oil executives to develop alternative forms of energy.

<https://www.ncronline.org/news/environment/pope-oil-execs-no-time-lose-switch-alternative-energy>

2. Climate Change Connection

<https://mailchi.mp/369f21658c98/climate-update-294-bike-week-winnipeg-plastic-free-july-rapid-transit-route-study-energy-saving-tips-climate-news?e=363f359b05>

Bike Week is June 18-24

Green Youth Coffee Night July 3

Other news and notices....

3. Take the Plastic Free July Challenge..... <http://www.plasticfreejuly.org/>

The concept of plastic free July has been around for years!

4. An interesting website for living plastic free, minimalist living and moving toward zero waste.

<https://treadingmyownpath.com/about-me/>

June 19