

Who is a famous person you'd love to meet?

What personal skill are you most proud of?

Who is your favorite teacher?

What is something that really upsets you?

Where is your favorite place in the house? Why?

What is something you'd like to do more often as a family?

What is your favorite holiday? What makes it your favorite?

If you had a whole day to do anything you want, what would you do?

If you got a special gift for your birthday and someone wanted to borrow it, what would you do?

Finish this sentence: I'd like to learn how to . . .

How is your family's love like God's love?

If you could choose a spot in your house for family prayer and stories, where would it be?

What are you really good at? How could you use this skill to help God?

How do you think God felt on the day you were baptized?

At the end of a busy day, would you rather be with people or be alone?

If you could be a character on television, which would it be?

Why do you think God created families?

What do you like to do on Saturday mornings?

What's easiest about being a kid?
What's hardest?

What does it mean to be inspired?

Who sets a good example for you?
Do they inspire you to be a good person?

Conversation Starters

One way we pass on our faith to our children is through our conversations. When we share our stories, our values, and our care for others, we are sharing the Gospel and shaping our children's faith!

Here are some conversation starters for you to try while in the car, while doing chores, taking a walk - anytime you are together.

Don't feel that you have to do ALL of them! Choose those that work for your family.

Blessings to your family!

Adapted from <https://www.buildfaith.org/wp-content/uploads/2016/05/trip-talks.pdf>

When you do something nice for someone else, how does it make you feel?

What do you think it would be like to be very poor?

If you were given $1,000 to use to help other people, how would you spend it?

What do you think it would have been like to be one of Jesus' disciples?

What's the best dream you've ever had?

Is there anyone at school or church that you look up to or want to be like? If so, why?

What's your favorite Bible story, and what do you like best about it?

What would you say to God if God was sitting here with us?

If your friend was sick in bed, name three things you could do to brighten their day.

What do you think Jesus was like as a little boy?

If you were to write a book, what kind of story would it be?

What's the best way to spend a rainy day?

How do you think we could become closer as a family?

Why do you think God loves us so much?

What gifts or talents do you think God has given you?

What's your favorite thing about Grandma and/or Grandpa?

Has God been teaching you anything new lately?

What is one thing you prayed about today?

What does faith mean to you?

If you could start a new family tradition, what would it be?

Do you know how much your family loves you? How can you tell?

How would you describe God?

If you had three wishes, what would they be? (You're not allowed to wish for money or another wish!)

What is the hardest thing about being _____ years old?

What is the best thing about being _____ years old?

What job would you never want to have? Why?

Who is your best friend? Why are they your best friend?

What's the most important thing people need to know about God?

If you could change one thing in the world, what would you change?

If you could ask God one question, what would it be?

What do you think makes a good parent?

How do you think God wants us to respond to difficult people?

Why do you think God created families?