

Wednesday, Aug. 11

10:00

10:45

11:15

12:15

12:30

8:00

Thursday, Aug. 12

10:00

10:15

11:15

12:00

12:30

8:00

Friday, Aug. 13

10:00

10:15

11:15

12:00

Thursday 8

Title/Topic

What are you reading?

Going deeper with Truth & Reconciliation

Impact of COVID on pastoral care

Theological Reflection through Art

How are you doing...really?

2021 Study Conference Agenda *

*as of 7/22/2021

Gather, welcome

Opening worship

Breakout rooms: checking in, connecting,
catching up

Gathered conversation/learning: 20+ years of Lutheran/Anglican communion. Panel discussion with facilitated Q&A

reflection/closing

FREE TIME with resources/suggestions

Live on Zoom: house concert by Red Moon Road
followed by Zoom social hour

Gather, welcome

Gathered conversation/learning: responding to the call for Truth & Reconciliation

Breakout rooms (see below for descriptions/information)

1. What are you reading?
2. Going deeper with Truth & Reconciliation
3. Impact of COVID on pastoral care
4. Theological Reflection through Art
5. How are you doing...really?

reflection/closing

FREE TIME with resources/suggestions

*online open art studio available from 2:00-4:00

Evening prayer
followed by Zoom social hour

Gather, welcome

Breakout rooms: time with the bishop

Gathered conversation/learning: Faith, leadership and ministry in the season ahead

Closing worship

Breakout Room Descriptions & Information

Description

What books/authors/voices have been particularly insightful? What new voices have you discovered?

Facilitator

self-guided

Where do we start? What's our next step? How do we guide our congregations in this work? What resistance are we experiencing? What additional resources can we share with each other?

Rev. Vincent Solomon,
Urban Indigenous
Ministries Developer

How has COVID changed how you do/think about pastoral care? How do clergy handle compassion/care giver fatigue? What new pastoral care practices/challenges have you encountered?

TBD

Rev. Joye Platford, Presbyterian minister and art therapist, will lead an experience of creating meaning through image and word. No Art experience needed. Bring a pencil, paper, and something to add colour (pencil crayons, markers, pastels). optional: scissors, glue, magazines	Rev. Joye Platford, art therapist
This room is for those who want to connect with others, share updates and concerns, etc.	self-guided